Union Pacific 2019 Thanksgiving Holiday Intermodal Operating Plan

The Union Pacific Thanksgiving holiday Intermodal Operating Plan can be found on the Union Pacific website. Union Pacific will continue to operate many terminals and trains during the holiday; however, due to lighter volumes, there may be some train consolidations and/or annulments. Because of these factors, shipments may experience a slight delay to availability. Interline shipments may also experience some delay if connecting roads reduce operations due to the holiday.
